

Have you done enough to protect your home from criminals?

Homes in the area are burgled daily – and I'd hate yours to be next.

The aftermath of burglary goes far beyond the financial pain. It's why prevention is THE BEST strategy – when you want to beat the burglar.

Remember, burglary is an opportunistic crime.

Rarely do thieves target a specific property. Instead, they look for homes where they feel sure they can get in and out, undetected and undisturbed.

So how do you cut the chances of your home being violated?

These ten easy checks make all the difference.

10-POINT HOME SECURITY CHECKLIST

- 1 View your property through the eyes of a burglar to identify any vulnerabilities
- 2 Check your door and window locks are British Standard and insurance approved
- 3 Take photographs of all your precious items
- 4 Be mindful of what you share on social media
- 5 Dress your windows so burglars can't 'window shop'
- 6 Close your bins so discarded boxes of expensive items can't be seen from the road
- 7 Install motion sensor lighting to illuminate entrances
- 8 Make your house look and sound occupied
- 9 Don't take risks by leaving keys visible or your property unlocked
- 10 Choose a NSI Gold Accredited Company to professionally install and maintain an intruder alarm

FACT. It costs an average of £650 to protect your home with an intruder alarm

(That's less than the cost of a TV or a quality computer).
